

Public Hall, Lodi, California. Jan. 15, 1912.

In regular session of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi, the following trustees being present: J.M. Blodget, F.O. Hale, G.E. Lawrence, C.A. Rich and L. Villinger. President Lawrence presiding.

The minutes of the meeting of Jan. 8, 1912, were read and approved.

Arthur E. Stanley was granted a permit to construct a dwelling on lot 1 block 5, E. Lodi.

Communications from Earl Fruit Co. and F.H. Buck Co. complaining about the condition of Pine Street in front of their sheds were read, and the matter was referred to the Street Committee.

A communication from Mrs. H.E. Rathbun, complaining of the stray law and the strict enforcement of it, was read and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Engineer Tumelty suggested that Central California Traction Co. be asked to put in trolley rails, and suggested that the Board should ask the Company to attend to the matter of letting a contract for the fixing of the street along their track. Trustee Rich suggested that that matter was in the hands of the Street Superintendent.

Engineer Tumelty asked to be authorized to design a system of drainage for rain waters on the improved streets.

Judge Jones stated that he had been informed that there was a case in which the city was interested on appeal in the Superior Court; and suggested that the city employ a prosecuting attorney, to take care of such matters.

Supt. Henning stated that there are five lines of poles on Sac. St. and suggested that if it could be arranged that all wires could be placed on one pole line it would add to the beauty of the city.

The matter of issuing licenses to sell liquor to G. Piazzi and C. Orselli was referred to the Board by the clerk, who stated that he had not issued licenses, as he believed that they were not running orderly places. There being no charges before the Board, the licenses were ordered issued.

The Board adjourned until Jan. 22, 1912, at the usual hour and place.

Attest:

City Clerk.
